Families who chose to pull their children from school after the first month of enrolment will waive their right for reimbursement of tuition paid in full; those making monthly payments will agree to continue to make payments the remainder of the school year. The only exceptions for this policy are the following: Family moves out of the school area; Family pulls due to severe financial trouble; Family pulls due to medical or reasons deemed "out-of-their-control" by BBS administration. No records will be released until all accounts and fees are paid.

I acknowledge that the above is my financial obligation and I will discharge it as printed in this financial worksheet.
